

Prayer Points and Information

The new year always prompts thoughts of new starts, new resolutions, and new commitments. Let's pray this week that 2012 will be a year of blessing from God, as well as one of ongoing renewal and commitment on our part in our personal lives as well as the life of the church. Pray particularly for the following areas as well as any others that come to mind:

- All aspects of worship in church life, particularly the different facets of the Sunday services (singing, praying, reading, giving) for those who lead, and for those who teach God's word – to adults and to the children – that we will continue to listen to it humbly and apply it faithfully.
- The weekly activities that take place in the church building itself and in our homes and other places, that people will be built up in faith and their discipleship as a result of meeting with each other.
- Increased and more effective evangelistic engagement with neighbours, children, young people, work colleagues, and for any events that we organise as part of an ongoing commitment to reach out to people in the local area.
- Our interest in larger world issues, as well as brothers and sisters in Christ around the globe, that we will exercise a global as well as a local concern, that we will seek to pray for those around the world who suffer and are in need.

1 January 2012

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

*'I will exalt you, my God the King;
I will praise your name for ever and ever.
Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever.
Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;
his greatness no one can fathom.
One generation commends your works to another;
they tell of your mighty acts.'*

Psalm 145:1-4

Whole Life, Whole Bible

Join Antony Billington, Margaret Killingray, and Helen Parry, as well as guest speaker Derek Tidball, for an evening exploring how the big story of the Bible forms our minds, fuels our imaginations, and fashions our daily life – as we live in God's world in the light of God's word. The evening also celebrates the launch of Whole Life, Whole Bible (published by BRF). Designed to walk through the unfolding story of the Bible in 50 readings and reflections, the book has been written with the conviction that God's word illumines every part of existence, enabling us to see differently and live differently – from Monday to Sunday, at home and at work, in public as well as in private.

Venue: LICC, St Peter's, Vere Street, London W1G 0DQ
Cost: £8 – includes refreshments and a copy of the book
Booking: mail@licc.org.uk or 020 7399 9555

*Please see the notice board in the entrance foyer
