Prayer Points

Let's pray for each other in the church, rejoicing with those who rejoice, and weeping with those who weep. And let's pray ahead of the AGM next Sunday, that it will be encouraging to hear of the good things that God is doing amongst us.

Pray for Kingsley Appiagyei, who will become President of the Baptist Union of Great Britain at the Baptist Assembly in May. Kingsley hopes that his presidential year will see a fresh passion for prayer and revival being ignited in the churches. He asks: 'Pray that I will inspire again the faith of the forefathers of this great nation, who selflessly toiled against the odds by affecting and changing the continents of the world with the Gospel of our Lord Jesus. Pray that in simplicity and with much humility I may serve my generation by the will of God. Pray for travelling mercies and for the orphanage work in Ghana that I am involved in.'

Pray for the 20,000-strong Baptist family in Hungary, which is calling its people to faith in Jesus Christ in the current economic crisis. Pray for Jozsef Csuha, co-ordinating the Baptist Roma mission, and the fast-growing Roma churches. Pray too for BMS worker Jenny Smith, teaching English at the Baptist Theology Academy in Budapest and active in a local church.

19 April 2009

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

'When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem.'
