Prayer Points

Let's continue to pray for ourselves as a church as we look to the future; let's pray for the things that the apostle Paul prays for when he prays for churches: increasing love, depth of insight, thankful hearts, fruitful lives...

Pray for full recovery for those among us who have been suffering recently, or who continue to suffer, including Joyce Bungay, Margaret Carey, and Sue Rugg.

Pray ahead of our church party next Saturday evening, for Josephine Morris as she organises it, and that it will be an enjoyable time as well as a great opportunity to deepen our relationships with each other.

Nepal continues to be subject to political, religious, economic and natural pressures, and the government and people rarely have energy to see beyond the current moment and plan for a better future. Despite the challenges of daily life, there are more possibilities for new directions than in the past. Pray for Katrina, Martin, Ruth and Esther Butterworth, working with the Baptist Missionary Society, as they contribute in a variety of ways at Patan Hospital and the Kathmandu International Study Centre.

25 January 2009

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

'My brothers and sisters, believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ must not show favoritism... Listen, my dear brothers and sisters: Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him? ... If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing right.'
