

News and Information

Prayer Points

Pray for the children and young people in our church as they return to school after the Christmas break; pray for others (like Timi Olubokun and Debbie Cunningham) who will be starting a new term in college or university – that God will bless them and sustain them in their studies.

Those who are able to do so might like to take on the task of watching or listening to a news programme every day throughout the coming week and praying through each of the items of ongoing national and international concern as they are presented.

Pray for church-related activities as they start again, that the times we meet each other during the week will help build and nurture relationships between us.

Let's pray for any we know who are poorly, that they will know strength and peace and healing from God.

Pray for an end to hostilities throughout Sudan, in Darfur, and for the fragile peace between north and south Sudan. Pray for God's protection over Christian missionaries in these contexts, and for wisdom as they comfort the bereaved, offer hope to those whose lives are bleak, and speak to people about Jesus.

4 January 2009

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

‘Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.’

Hebrews 1:1-2
